Invitation provides the intro student with pretty fantastic definitions while, as fully as a intro text can, filling out the spectrum on many of the maj In an introduction to philosophy course you generally have two ways to go about learning: 1 Move through philosophy historically or 2 Move through philosophy topically. INVITATION TO PHILOSOPHY: ISSUES AND OPTIONS walks you through each major topic in philosophy using language you can understand, shows you how it's all connected, and manages to be entertaining at the same time.

Invitation To Philosophy: Issues and Options (1999)

Freshman and sophomore Excellent topical overview of the discipline!. The continuum proved to be an excellent heuristic device. A continuum helps students see the options available to answer a variety of basic questions and the relationship each option has to the others.
