The Uneasy Peace (1684): RP Thread

A study of 3,000 family members over 16 generations by the suggests inbreeding may have played a factor in their extinction. And Hitler's Drang nach Osten—yearning for the East—had a strong Danubian stink. After the 1474—75 , he was successful.

Traces of Evil: Revision Notes and Essays for the 1848 Revolutions

I will argue that Frederick William IV had a partial impact on the demise of the Frankfurt Parliament but it was, however not his rejection of leadership, but the disunity and incompetency of the organization itself that led to its own failure. Overall this essay has only scratched the surface of the problems with the Frankfurt Parliament.
