The National Popular Vote Interstate Compact: using the Electoral College against itself

Switching to this standard system would not likely create an adverse result. States that join the compact agree to award their Electoral College votes to the candidate who receives the most votes nationally, not the candidate who wins the state, once the compact has reached enough members to constitute an electoral majority. Bush won the Electoral College in 2000 even though he received 0.

Why the Electoral College does a disservice to Wyoming

We want our readers to add their point of view to every story but ask that they keep their comments relevant to the topic at hand. After Hours Contact 613-498-1361 Our normal business operating hours are from 8:00 a. The American Left, on a daily basis, shows anyone who cares to pay attention what authoritarianism looks like and, more importantly, how they plan to wield it if or when they get into power.

ELECTORAL COLLEGE

So far, such repeal bills have been introduced in Maryland, New Jersey, and Washington, but have failed, while Colorado voters rejected an attempt to overturn its NPVIC law in November 2020. Together, these swing states account for 119 electoral votes. Because the Electoral College is based on the structure of state populations and representation in the House, some people have a vote that carries more weight per delegate than others.

Opinion

What is the electoral college? Unfortunately, strong public sentiments can overwhelm even the best institutional arrangements. The general mailbox is checked daily for your convenience.

Opinion

Even Vice Presidential Candidate Kamala Harris supported eliminating the electoral college when she was originally a candidate in the primaries. However, this means nothing to NPV proponents who despise the Constitution and the principles of the founding fathers.

George Sherwood (Province of Canada politician)

The entire state of California had a population of 39,557,045 in 2018. The interests of the minority would no longer receive protection.

14 Pros and Cons of Abolishing the Electoral College

The NPVC is currently the solution that would allow us to stay most true to the popular vote without having to amend the constitution.

Which would have suited the Principate just dandy. The founders had designed a system of checks and balances to avoid not only tyranny of branches of government, but of the tyranny of the majority. Not so the backers of the so-called , a scheme to evade the Constitution by persuading a bloc of states to pledge their electors to whichever candidate wins the national popular vote, regardless of the outcome of the vote in each state.
