Captain America

Small Diameter Bomb II Raytheon Imaging infrared guidance allows the weapon to track and hone in on heat signatures such as the temperature of an enemy vehicle. The longer the cell phone use each day, the worse the sperm.

The Department of Mad Scientists

Not long was the reply. Personally, I find myself angry with it.

Senior DARPA Scientist Warns of Widespread LETHAL ATTACKS Upon the Public Coming From Microwave Towers

The B-1 kicked off the assault by dropping four JDAMs onto the opposite side of the compound from Ford. Poor communication during the raid led to a friendly fire incident and another miscommunication led to the Marines withdrawing without Lance Cpl.

Bats, Gene Editing and Bioweapons: Recent Darpa Experiments Raise Concerns Amid Coronavirus Outbreak, by Whitney Webb

Then the data link gives it a cue and tells the seeker where to open up and look. These megawatts of extra power are NOT for data transfer — nothing close to that amount of energy is required for data transfer — which is an important point, because this suggests that cell phone towers are easily capable of being switched to Weaponized Mode. A unity of our global voice.

The Department of Mad Scientists

Everyone should make his or her own list online. They also went about developing eye-implants.

Weaponized Vegetation

. It has since been turned upon the domestic American population.
