The Founding Fathers Knew Property Rights Were Essential to Freedom and Prosperity – Charisma News

After the decades of pain, suffering, misery, treachery, savagery, penury, and war they endured, those heralded visionaries, were they alive today, would be shaking their collective heads at just how far off the mark the political farce we call a country has evolved since they all took the big dirt bath. They point to their slaveholding records and the fact that there were no women involved in the decision making.
