Child mental health: recognising and responding to issues

For example say: Have you thought about killing yourself? Abuse and neglect The traumatic impact of abuse and neglect increases the likelihood of children developing a range of mental health issues — both during childhood and in later life.

Children and young people's services

It is important to keep in mind that children and youth with mental health disorders sometimes have more difficulty than others dealing with stressors and that their mental health condition itself may lead to a crisis situation for no apparent reason.

Topic #9: Talking about what young people need during the pandemic

It can impact on all aspects of their life, including their educational attainment, relationships and physical wellbeing.

The Implications of COVID

What are psychologists and psychiatrists doing to address the special needs of people with autism? In Northern Ireland, the Department of Health has published a , which is comprised of 38 actions and commits to producing a mental health strategy Department of Health, 2020. People who should not wear a mask are children under age 2 and anyone who has trouble breathing, or is unconscious, incapacitated or otherwise unable to remove the mask without assistance.

Children and young people's services

Personally, I think we urgently need more accessible, on-call services for families and children in crisis.
