Insurance

CA A 1242 Status: Pending Requires each state agency to submit a summary of actual and project costs, information security costs, and to comply with the policies and procedures issued by the Office of Information Security. The insured—the homeowner—pays an annual based on the property's flood risk and the deductible they choose. The IDES strongly encourages anyone who has received notice that an unemployment insurance claim has been fraudulently filed in their name to immediately report the claim to the department or by calling 800-814-0513.
