Universalism: A theology for the 21st century

The Bible is not authoritative because of the sublime subject matter it contains, or because it is infallibly accurate though it is that. In fact, theology has responsibilities to three communities: faith communities, the academy, and society at large. If many, but not all Jews knew of these prophecies, why did they not recognize the Lordship of Christ and become Christians see Bickerman 1990 and Ferguson 2003? But I can enjoy the fruits that is, writings of those who have: read commentaries, studies and so on.
