Art History Timeline: Western Art Movements and Their Impact

Because this type of art focused on ideas and concepts, there was no distinct style or form. Emphasis on technical, conceptual and aesthetic concerns, as well as individual approaches to media, methods, and activities. Looks very good for its age!! We will examine, through the contextually based study of the introduction of the retablo altarpiece into Iberian churches, chapels and palaces these contexts, of course, included a significant consciousness, and often presence, of Jews, Muslims, or recent converts to Christianity from those latter two religions in the early 15th century, both the problems enumerated above and the problematic culture of the religious image in Iberia.
