The Real Presence Of Jesus In The Eucharist: Quotes From The Saints

Throughout the Scriptures, God demonstrates his divine omnipotence. Christ is consubstantial with the Father and the Holy Spirit.

True Presence In The Eucharist

Understanding this metaphysically and describing our belief in human terms has been a development over time, but the teaching that Jesus — Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity — is present in the bread and wine after the consecration has never changed. After praying the words of consecration, through the instrument of the priest, God transforms the bread and wine into the Real Presence of Jesus Christ. Furthermore, this means that the two natures of Christ are distinct, yet they are in Union in the one person of Christ the hypostatic union.

The Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist: A cause for thanksgiving

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Holy Hours and Eucharistic processions are likewise precious elements of your heritage — in full accord with the teaching of the Second Vatican Council. Real presence of Christ in the Eucharist

When the mirror is broken, each fragment can reflect the whole object, just as entire mirror previously did. Also, this kind of presence corresponds to the virtue of faith, for the presence of the Body and Blood of Christ cannot be detected or discerned by any way other than faith.

Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist

Most Catholics who believe that the bread and wine are symbolic do not know that the church holds that transubstantiation occurs.
