Lamps come with B22 regular pin type holder in India and E27 Threaded type holder outside India. Today, there are two different types of Ribbon Machine, the lowervolume Model 100 and the faster Model 400.

Incandescent bulb legislation doesn't matter (MAGAZINE)

In the 2015 RECS, which was administered from August 2015 to April 2016, 86% of households reported using at least one CFL or LED bulb. The legislation and its enforcement are simply needless. Astonished at the results of his own study, Gray decided to produce the prototype and found the funds to proceed.
