History of Methodism in the Reading Area

He was unable to satisfactorily account for LEE'S death. THE CROWNING OF QUEEN VICTORIA 141 The Queen never forgot the teachings of her maidenhood, and in her latter days, when her womanliness called forth the filial devotion of her subjects, she was at the same time the most experienced statesman in Europe and the best man of business in the British Empire.

GENUKI: Newlyn, St Peter, Cornwall

It is doubtful that Gordon ever lived within the Parish of Somercotes himself, but as the address of his widow is recorded by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission as Birchwood Lane, Somercotes, we commemorate his service and sacrifice here. It can be seen from the very truncated biography above that he was a lieutenant in the RNVR in the Middle East, so it is no surprise to see him in Egypt. The army service records for Albert have not survived but it is known that he enlisted in April 1918 and after training was posted to France in June that year, serving with 355 Siege Battery, Royal Garrison Artillery.

Regardless of danger, I rushed up to the bed, and my heart seemed suddenly to cease beating. We may, however, state that Scarborough branch of Hull Circuit was made into a separate Circuit, perhaps prematurely; Brigg and Marshland branches of Scotter Circuit were made independent stations; Brad well and Don- caster were made Circuits by Sheffield Circuit, Louth by Grimsby, Middleham by Brompton, Pickering by Malton, and Bradford by Leeds Circuit.
