It was great growing up with your family. Clyde Parks was a true example and inspiration of how to let the love of Christ shine through you and extend to others! He was born in Pennington Gap, VA, on March 18, 1922, to the late Van B. About an hour and a half later, according to transcripts from his sentencing, he returned to the same car wash as the previous day, less than two miles from where he shot his cousin, and tried to rob another man.
