Boccaccio : or, The Prince of Palermo : comic opera in three acts : Suppé, Franz von, 1819

. To be brief, after much flirting and serenading, Pietro accomplishes the business for which he has set out and meets Fiammetta whose foster-father is overcome with awe to learn her true identity. Boccaccio, who has learned that Fiammetta is to marry, succeeds in stealing interviews with her in the disguises of a beggar and a simpleton, and finds that his love is returned.

Boccaccio

In the last act, Fiammetta is found at the ducal palace in Palermo, about to be solemnly betrothed to Pietro.

Comic Opera in Three Acts by Giovanni Boccaccio

Upon his arrival in the city, he joins in several adventures with the students and meets Boccaccio, for whom he has had, for some time, a profound admiration.
